....

CORAM: SWATANTER KUMAR, C.J. &
DR. D.Y. CHANDRACHUD, J.

11th September, 2007.

P.C. :

1. Counsel appearing for the Respondents submits that despite repeated requests and even the letters particularly the letter dated 25th June, 2007, the Petitioners have not submitted the requisite documents. It is further stated that the statement in regard to Respondent No.3 has already been finalized and because of non-cooperation of the Petitioners their statement could not be finalized. This however, is not disputed by Counsel appearing for the Petitioners.

2. However, it is not necessary for us to go into the controversy in regard to the factual aspect of the matter and we dispose of this Petition with a direction to the Petitioners to submit all documents including the documents called for by the Respondents vide their letter dated 25th June, 2007 within one week from today. If such documents along with other documents are submitted by the Petitioners, the authorities shall deal with them in accordance with law and finalize the statement in relation to the Petitioners.

3. For whatever reasons if the documents are not submitted within time, the Petitioners will neither be entitled to any benefit of this order nor the Respondents would await in the matter any further. The Respondents will be at liberty to conclude the proceedings in accordance with law within two weeks thereafter. No coercive steps will be taken for a period of four weeks from today, subject to such further orders as may be passed by the Court. However, after the expiry of the said period, this order will come to an end automatically.

The Petition is accordingly disposed of.
